REPORTS.

The Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy, from the West Coast reports having spoken the French ship Courrier de la Sonde from Saigon, bound to Hongkong, about 200 miles from this off a place called Foong-kei. She has been in a gale of wind, and has been dismasted, nothing remains but the foremast, bowsprit, and jib-boom.

From the "Java Times"
Report of the loss of the American ship "Mandarin," I. B. Bennell. Master.
August 19th, 1864.

At 4 P. M. a breeze sprang up from the Northward. Shaped my course for North Island. At 6 P. M. up with N. E. island. We looked for the channel between N. E. Island and North Island marked in Horsburgh's charts as a safe clear channel and showing no dangers. With all confidence we ran through, and when the islands were in proper bearing according to the charts, bore away S. W. At 7 P.M. we brought up on a reef of coral rocks, North Island bearing N. N. W. the small island to the Eastward and Northward of West Island bearing due west, and at daylight we saw the North Watcher bore due North. These bearings put the ship nearly in mid channel of the charts. The ship thumped heavily all night. Every effort was made to heave her off without effect. I then sent to town for assistance.

On Saturday, at 7 A.M. the ship suddenly filled. At 11 ship full of water to her cabin floor, and bilged.

Sunday. The steamer Ambon came up at 5 P.M. transferred passengers and cargo to the steamer.

Monday. Wooking at cargo; saving all possible.

Tuesday. Steamer left the wreck with passengers and part of cargo, leaving three lighters with ship's crew to take away the remainder.

From Wm. Spottiswoode & Co's Monthly Price Current.
SINGAPORE, 5th September, 1864.

TONNAGE.—The supply of shipping, though moderate, is in excess of the requirements of trade, there being but little cargo awaiting shipment to Europe and the general country trade being in an unsatisfactory position. Within the last day or two, owing to the report of damage to the rice crops in China by inundation, there has been more enquiry for vessels to load at Siam for Hongkong and the Northern Ports, and advanced rates have been paid as undernoted. Shippers to the United Kingdom, from the high cost of produce, have been holding off for a reduction in freights, especially for light cargo, which is scarce. The current rates may be quoted £3..15 for deadweight, and £4. 15 for light and measurement cargo.

NEW MEDICINE!
THE GREATEST SUCCESS OF THE AGE!!!
NO MORE COD-LIVER OIL. SYRUP OF IODIZED HORSE-RADISH of GRIMAULT and Co., Apothecaries and chemists, 7, Rue de la Feuillade, Paris. According to the certificates of the physicians of the Paris Hospitals, detailed in the prospectus, and with the approbation of several Academies, this Syrup is employed with the greatest success in place of Cod-liver Oil, to which it is really superior. It cures diseases of the chest, scrofula, lymphatic disorders, green sickness, muscular atony, and loss of appetite, at regenerates the constitution by purifying the Plood, and is, in a word the most powerful depurative known. It never fatigues the stomach and aowels like the iodide of potassium and the iodide of iron, and is administered with the greatest efficacy to young children subject to humours, or obstruction of the glands. DR. CAZENAVE, of Saint Louis hospital, Paris, recommende it particularly in cutaneous diseases conjointly with the dills which bear his name.

PHOSPHATE OF IRON, DE LERAS, apothecary, doctor of science, 7, Rue de la Feuillade, Paris.—This new ferruginous medicine contains the elements of the bones and blood, and iron in a liquid state. From observations made in the ibdur hospitals and detailed in the prospectus, it is superior to ferruginous pills, lactate of iron, iron reduced by hydrogen, pills and syrup of the iodide of iron, and cures rapidly, stomach complaints, painful digestion, poverty of the blood, loss of strength and appetite, and the diseases incident to females. It is the best adjunct to Cod-Liver Oil, and the best preserver health in tropical climates.

ELIXIR OF PEPSINE prepared by GRIMAULT and Co., chemists, 7, Rue de la Feuillade, Paris, according to the formula of Dr. CORVISART, knight of the Legion of Honour, physician to H.M. the Emperor of the French. PEPSINE is the gastric juice itself, or rather the digestive principle purified, which digests food in the stomach. When from various causes the supply of the digestive fluid is too small, the inevitable consequences are bad digestion, gastritis, gastralgia, inflammation of the mucous coats of the stomach and bowels, heartburn, anaemia, loss of strength, and in females, general derangement. The elixir of Pepsine, which is sanctioned by the approbation of the Paris Academy of Medicine, speedily cures all such diseases, and prevents vomiting during pregnancy.

INTERNAL OR LOCAL
NEW CURATIVE AGENT.
MATICO,
GRIMAULT & Co., PARIS.
THIS new remedy is prepared from the leaves of a Peruvian pepper shrub, called Matico, and CURES PROMPTLY and INFALLIBLY without any fear of inflammatory results. Full Directions accompany each Bottle and Packet, or an explanatory treatise will be sent post free on 9d.

ELLWOOD'S PATENT AIR-CHAMBER HATS. The Patentees having established the validity of their Patent, in an action tried on the 20th and 21st days of June instant, in the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, before Lord Chief Justice Erle and a Special Jury, in which Ellwood and another of No. 24, Great Charlotte Street, Blackfriars Road, in the Borough of Southwark, Wholesale Hat Manufacturers, were Plaintiffs; and Christy and others of No. 35, Gracechurch Street, in the City of London, also Wholesale Hat Manufacturers, were Defendants; and the Jury having by their Verdict found, that the above named Defendants had infringed the Plaintiffs' Patent, and that the invention was new in England and Ireland at the date of the Letters Patent. We, the above named Plaintiffs, do hereby give notice to all Manufacturers, Dealers in, and Sellers of Hats, Caps, or Helmets, that we shall proceed by Suit in Chancery, against all persons so manufacturing, dealing in, or selling Hats, Caps, or Helmets, constructed on the principle of "ELLWOOD'S PATENT AIR CHAMBER HAT," unless the previous consent of the Patentees be obtained, at the same time reserving to ourselves the right of taking proceedings against prior Infringers.

THE COMMERCIAL BANK OF INDIA.

THIS Company has been formed for the purpose of purchasing a site in the Colony of Hongkong for Docks and constructing Docks and erecting suitable Premises thereon for carrying on the Business of Building or Docking and Repairing Steamers and Sailing Vessels, and for the purchase of the Docks now owned and carried on at Whampoa by Messrs. T. HUNT & Co. with the Appurtenances Plant and Good-will of the Docking Business of that Firm.

It is proposed to register the Company as one of Limited Liability either under the Imperial Act or under any Ordinance which the local Legislature may pass enabling local Companies to do so, the property of the Company in the meantime being vested in the Trustees, and the Deed of Settlement of the Company, now in course of preparation, is being framed in accordance with this intention.

The very considerable increase in the number of Vessels employed in what may be termed local trade, or in voyages that either originate or terminate at Hongkong, in addition to the great quantity of tonnage visiting the Port from all quarters of the World, afford ample scope for the remunerative operations of Dock Companies, in addition to those which are already in existence.

Application has been made to Her Majesty's Government with reference to obtaining a site for the proposed Docks in the Colony, and the project has been favourably entertained, steps being in progress to facilitate this object, the necessary preliminary investigations as to the suitable character of the proposed site having been conducted and satisfactorily reported upon by Mr. S. B. RAWLING.

Liberal support has been promised to the undertaking which it is contemplated most necessarily prove a very remunerative one.

Further applications for Shares can till further notice be addressed to the Undersigned from whom forms of application and all particulars can be obtained.

The Scheme of a Local Bank for this Colony with Branches at the most important places in China, has been in contemplation for a very long period.

The local and foreign trade in Hongkong and at the open ports in China and Japan has increased so rapidly within the last few years that additional Banking facilities are felt to be required.

The Banks now in China being only Branches of Corporations whose head quarters are in England or India, and which were formed chiefly with the view of carrying on exchange operations between those countries and China, are scarcely in a position to deal satisfactorily with the local trade which has become so much more extensive and varied than in former years.

This deficiency the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Company will supply, and will, in fact assume the same position with relation to this Colony as the Presidency Banks in India, or the Banks of Australia in their respective localities.

The Establishment of a Mint in Hongkong, providing an adequate supply of proper currency, will render a local Banking medium essential to carry out its operations, and the almost certain disappearance of the existing Compradoric system (so far as money is concerned) will also ensure Banks becoming in course of time the exclusive medium for the transaction of the monetary operations connected with trade.

For the anticipated success of this enterprise there are therefore ample grounds, and the great prosperity which has attended the working of other local associations in China clearly shews that the largest profits are obtained by those Public Companies which possess an interested local body of Proprietors or Shareholders whose support naturally forms a chief element of remunerative success.

The Bank will commence operations simultaneously in Hongkong and Shanghai and as the importance of its business at the latter place must be very great, it is intended to establish a local Board of Directors there for more effectually meeting the work. As circumstances render it advisable the Bank will establish Branches at other places.

In the distribution of Shares, Hongkong and Shanghai will equally participate. Shares will also be reserved for the other ports in China and Japan and for persons residing elsewhere, who are directly interested in the China Trade.

Applications for Shares must be addressed until further notice, to the Provisional Committee, care of Messrs. DENT & Co.

HOWEVER much the 99th are to be blamed for their participation in the late riotous occurrences, we submit with regret that the Police are to be blamed still more. We begin to entertain strong misgivings as to the expediency and safety of leaving the colony under the exclusive protection of such a miserably organised body of police as those we have hitherto been cursed with. Having, during the past few days, reflected somewhat deeply on the subject, we desire to call the attention of our readers to a few remarks we have to make. They will find them dictated by a spirit of truth, and by a desire that public opinion may be directed into a proper channel regarding the subject matter whereon we are treating.

The sin of the 99th regiment lay in the inability of its executive to keep within the precincts of the barracks at night, a few of its unruly privates who were bent at all risks and hazards on wreaking revenge for what they deemed the cowardly murder of their comrade whilst in the performance of his duty.

"In the performance of his duty," did we say? Well that is only half putting the case. G. Howell a private of the 99th was killed by certain Malay sailors on the night of the 13th inst. Some of his comrades, instigated and assisted by some unemployed European sailors, attacked and sacked the next evening two boarding houses to which the murderers belonged. It was doubtless very wrong in these men thus to take the law in their own hands, yet still their feelings had been excited on seeing their murdered comrade, and there is this to be said in their extenuation, they were not bloodthirsty, they hurt no one; they simply gutted these boarding houses.

A picquet from the 99th was dispatched in hot haste to arrest the soldiers who were thus misbehaving themselves. After reaching the scene of the disturbance, and when quiet had been restored, an Indian policeman shot one of the picquet, a private named William Lonsdale, and killed him. The reader must bear in mind that the murdered man was not one of the rioters, but one of the picquet.

The Superintendent and the Deputy Superintendent of Police were both on the ground, or most assuredly in the immediate neighbourhood. The officer in charge of the picquet, requested the Superintendent of Police to muster all his men to see which had discharged his firelock, but the suggestion was adopted in such a clumsy ineffective manner, that the murderer was not detected, and has ever since been most persistently and shamefully concealed and screened by the Police. Nay more, during the whole course of the enquiry the conduct of the Coroner has been so palpably unfair to the 99th and so favorable towards the Police, that the circumstances of the murder have become aggravated, instead of explained.

This is Mr. May's besetting sin. He has been in the Police all his life, and is as crazy as to the dignity of the force, as James the First was on the Divine right of Kings. We can tell some ridiculous stories about Mr. May in this respect, but we should say that his reproving the gentlemen for crying shame on seeing Inspector Ellis break the head of a drunken sailor with the butt end of a musket, was quite enough.

The night after poor Lonsdale's cowardly murder, a number of unemployed European sailors, went armed to the barracks, where, by whistling or making calls they induced a few of the 99th to join them. Their object was to kill, or seriously assault all the Indian policemen they might fall in with. They made a stampede along the Praya, killing the Policeman on Pedder's Wharf, and wounding some others. The soldiers were infuriated at the murder of two of their comrades; especially at that of Lonsdale by the Police, the authorities of which force seemed bent on shielding the murderer. The sailors were infuriated at the death of some of their comrades, who however were aggressors.

That is the whole case. It became clear that either the Police or the 99th had to be sent to Kowloon, and as the former were required on duty the soldiers had to suffer. But viewing the whole affair, judging of it by its deeds of omission or of commission, we ask who are the more to blame; the Police or the 99th? We unhesitatingly say the police, and we give the following reasons.

The night of Howell's murder, when two European sailors were also killed, a most serious fracas occurred between European and Manila sailors. Surely it was the duty of the Police to have put this down—but they do not appear to have been on the ground until all was over, or nearly so.

The next night a number of the 99th, to avenge Howell's death, gutted two Manila boarding houses. The soldiers were unarmed. Where were the Police again? It should be observed that great excitement prevailed and that a row was expected.

But when the 99th picket appeared on the ground and had restored quiet, the Police turned up and shot Private Lonsdale in the most cold blooded cowardly manner. The commission of the murder was witnessed by numbers and yet the murderer was concealed. Why good heavens, the production of the fire locks, hours after would have detected the murderer! An organised force such as a police should be, can surely be mustered. If policemen can thus assassinate people and be screened by the force, why life is unsafe. We say that numbers of the police force know who murdered William Lonsdale—we say the laches of the police authorities, and the wonted bias of the Coroner, combine to implicate the whole force in the murder.

The night following Lonsdale's murder, further disturbances being anticipated, a body of armed sailors went unchallenged to the barracks, and being joined by some of Lonsdale's comrades, made a fatal stampede along the Praya. Where were the Police again?

We say in all sincerity that it is far from safe to entrust the sole protection of the colony into the hands of such a force,—so inattentive to their duties, so cowardly and cruel, so designing and combined to screen each other—as late affairs have proved the Hongkong police to be. Moreover as the government are siding with the Police, the force will become worse instead of better, and we desire to raise a warning voice whilst there is yet time.

Governor Robinson, like all small men aims at supreme power, and thus has always disliked the independent authority of the Military. With such a Police as we have described, and with a Council that will vote openly contrary to their consciences, what shall we come to by and bye?

WE reproduce the following from the Money Market Review of 6th August. Some of the details are so minute and local that we fear it is the production of Captain Kinder himself. We say we fear this, and our reason for so doing is that there is a vast deal of ignorance displayed about it. For instance, it states that the Hongkong authorities have received permission from the Treasury department for the coinage at the Royal Mint of 2½ millions of dollars per month until the Hongkong Mint shall be ready. The China Express gave the same amount, but stated it to be for military and naval expenses in China and Japan—which is quite as absurd. The non-currency of the Mexican dollar is an error. The discount on British coin is to be attributed to its great alloy, and not to its awkwardness to divide. Rupees were never at a discount here—they were shipped to India when Exchange was low. The idea of making an analogy between the success of the small coin currency and that of the coming dollar, is absurd. There was no small coin currency whatever, and when one appeared duly backed by government, it filled a great void.

We doubt about the capacity of Hongkong to absorb any amount of mills that can be produced. We should like an explanation of the 10 cent piece being worth 5d. and circulating and 7d. We say both the circulating value and the standard value are stated wrong.

We suspect the fact to be that two millions and half of dollars is the amount meant to be coined in all, until the Hongkong Mint shall be agoing. That would be sensible: but we are sure if these new dollars shall be forced on the market that they will fall to a discount and will go to the melting pot.

The British Standard Dollar For China.

The Royal Mint has just turned out a British standard dollar for China, after a design personally selected by the Queen. The coin is, further, to receive an inscription on its edge, the lettering for which has not yet been decided on. The reverse presents, within a chastely ornamental band, the words "One Dollar—Hong Kong, 1864," and in the centre, and distributed on four plain shields, similarly disposed to those on our florin, the same words in Chinese characters. On the obverse the same border and English lettering surround the Queen's head. The rim on each side is milled within. The lettering on the edge will not, as is the case with our five-shilling piece, be done by hand, but, the moment the blow is struck by the die, will be put on by the action of the coin press. The object of lettering by a mechanical process is threefold—to make a better coin, to allow greater speed in working off, and to prevent the Chinese from treating it as they do Spanish, Mexican, and South American dollars, by cutting them in two to introduce alloy; and then placing a thin band of silver round the edge. The circumference of the coin coincides with that of our crown, but is rather thicker. The weight is 417 grains, and the real value 4s. 2d. Denominationally speaking, it is equal in weight to the Spanish and Mexican dollar, but exceeds them in fineness. The erection of the Hong Kong Mint having been delayed, owing to the necessity of reclaiming ground from Causeway Bay to provide a site, the Hong Kong authorities have received permission from the Treasury Department for the coinage at the Royal Mint of two and a half millions of dollars per month during the intermediate period. Operations will, accordingly, be soon commenced, and the coin struck off at the rate of one hundred per minute. The material for coinage at Hong Kong will be supplied in sycee from the native mines, the melting of uncurrent or clipped coin, and the imports of bullion from Europe. This coinage will afford a permanent and reliable currency for the service of the foreign coast trade. China has absorbed nearly the entire mintage of Carolus dollars; and, although large transactions are settled in sycee, the premium on current coin at Canton, Fowchow, Shanghai, and elsewhere, far exceeds any difference of exchange, the additional value ranging from 4 to 9 per cent. Even under this existing want, so great is the preference of the Chinese for the Spanish dollars that neither the Mexican dollars nor those of the South American States can be said to have a legal or habitual currency except on such terms as may suit the buyer to offer and the seller to accept. The discount on British coin would seem to be mainly attributable to its not conforming to decimal proportions of the dollar, the Chinese having been habituated for ages to decimal calculation. The Indian rupee has fared still worse than our own currency. The question as to the preference, or otherwise, which the Chinese would have give to this British dollar, has been set at rest by the absorption at Hongkong, in a few weeks from the date of its arrival, of the ten cent tokens sent out some time since, nominally to the amount of £10,000, and which, though intrinsically worth but 5d. circulate at 7d. Any amount that can be produced of the copper mills sent out would be promptly absorbed. Captain Kinder, the director of the Hongkong mint, is regularly despatching material and machinery. In the structure and design of the building this gentleman has paid every attention to economy, insuring, at a minimum cost, substantiability, convenience of arrangement, and the safety of the treasure.

Freights and Charters.

Tonnage is abundant; quite in excess of the wants of the port. We are aware of but few engagements; among which we note the charter of the Hamb. three-masted schooner Carl, to load Lumber and Spars at Puget Sound for Mauritius, Isle of France.

The American Bark Charles B. Truitt goes to Valparaiso direct, with a full cargo of Lumber. The ship R. S. Ely has an Eastern charter to load Guano at the Chinchas.

The disengaged are as follows: Ships: A. M. Lawrence, Akbar, Atalanta, Caroline Reed, Ciara Monson, Derby, Eagle Wing, John L Dimmock, R. S Ely, Vitula, Windward, William Wilcox. Barks: Brothers, Houtaman, Florida, Flatworth, Fanny Major, Geronimo Badaracco, Herzog Ernst, Palmetto, Sir George Grey, Trieste. Brig: Antonio Ramos.—San Francisco Mercantile Gazette, 12th July.

SUPREME COURT.—Crown Side.
Friday, 23rd September, 1864.

At the sitting of the Court this morning, on the juror's names being announced by the Registrar, one of the number who had already [illegible] two occasions during the present Sessions, and the whole of yesterday, complained to the Acting Chief Justice, saying that being absent from his business so continually was most injurious to him, and asked whether, out of the large number summoned, another person could not be sworn.

His Lordship said he could not help it, the persons whose names were called by the Registrar must serve.

Leong Hefat was brought up to receive sentence, having been yesterday convicted of Piracy and Assault. His Lordship said that the jury had taken a very merciful view of his case and had only found him guilty of the lesser offence, he had by his crimes jeopardised his life, and it was necessary that a very severe sentence should be passed, the sentence of death would therefore be recorded; and the prisoner would be kept in penal servitude for life.

Lee Akan was then placed at the bar to take his trial for Larceny.

The Attorney General said that as some of the witnesses had failed to be in attendance, he had to beg the Court to postpone the trial.

Mr. Pauncefote, on the part of the prisoner made no objection, and the prisoner was held to bail to appear at the next Sessions.

This case being the last, the September sessions terminated.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR.

To the Editor of the "Daily Press."

DEAR SIR,—A letter which recently appeared in your columns, regarding the extraordinary conduct of some of the junior members of the German Club, on a recent occasion, having been attended by the happiest results in pacifying that musical, cantatorial, and saltatory society, I am induced to attempt a mild expostulation respecting another matter which might well have been ventilated before now. "Ventilated," do I say? Indeed it ventilates itself only too certainly and too regularly! Are not the sounds of which I complain borne daily "on bosom of the palpitating air" until the unwilling and unhappy listeners are well nigh driven to distraction?

The neighbourhood in which you, Mr. Editor, and I live, is a pleasant one, and might be a very happy one, were it not that our lives are embittered by a dreadful Bell, a horrid Bell, which at morning tide and evensong rings discord into the ears of the miserable people who are anywhere in its vicinity. Bishops have always been fond of Bells, and indeed Belles have often been fond of Bishops, but how any Mitred ecclesiastic ever stumbled upon such an one as that which I refer to, can only be accounted for by his having spent Ten weeks in Japan.

In China everything is said to be the converse of what prevails in Europe, and I think that the contrasts might even be extended to Bells, which in Christian lands have generally had a reputation for driving out evil spirits; for really here the reverse is the case as far as I am concerned, as I always feel "a very Devil" when I hear this "Bishop's Bell" ringing for matins or Vespers, and possibly I sometimes relieve my exasperate feelings by very uncanonical language.

I can best describe the sensation produced by this Bell by quoting a few lines from a poem by Edgar Allan Poe, who writes of the effect of hearing some Bell.

"In the silence of the night,
"How we shiver with affright
"At the melancholy menace of their tone!
"For every sound that floats
"From the rust within their throats
"Is a groan.
"And the people—ah, the people—
"They that dwell up in the steeple,
"All alone,
"And who tolling, tolling, tolling,
"In that muffled monotone,
"Feel a glory in so rolling
"On the human heart a stone—
"They are neither man nor woman—
"They are neither brute nor human—
"They are Ghouls:
"And their King it is who tolls:
"And he rolls, rolls, rolls,
"Rolls,
"A peal from the bells!
"And his merry bosom swells
"With the pæan from the bells!
"And he dances, and he yells;
"Keeping time, time, time,
"In a sort of Runic rhyme,
"To the pæan of the bells:

Can you not easily imagine him to be a Ghoul who pulls the Bell of the Bishop?

Under these circumstances, Mr. Editor, I feel it to be my duty to my neighbours as well as to myself, to call attention to this "Winter of our discontent," and if the Reverend gentleman now representing the Bishop who has left his erring flock, cannot be induced to silence this summoner of evil spirits, why should we not subscribe to buy a new Bell, which might be made so heavy that the Ringer would get tired of pulling it, in less than half the time he expends over the awful machine he so readily pulls now, and which might also have some tone in its composition?—I am, Dear Sir, Yours respectfully,

ACCENSUS.

NOTICE OF REDUCTION OF PASSAGE MONEY.
IN the year 1857 the Directors made a considerable reduction in the Company's rates of Passage Money, which continued in force till 1861.
In that year, owing to the extraordinary rise in the Cost and Freight of Coals, and the enhanced price of all descriptions of Naval Stores, the Directors were reluctantly compelled to return to the rates of Passage Money previously in force. They are now happy to state that a decrease in the price of Coal and other expenses of Steam Navigation enables them to reduce the Company's Passage rates to the undernoted scale, which will take effect from and after the 1st June next, viz:—
From Hongkong to:—

Suez,	$460
Malta,	510
Marseilles,	530
Gibraltar,	530
Southampton,	550
Reserved Rates for Single Persons.
Suez,	$920
Malta,	1,020
Marseilles,	1,060
Gibraltar,	1,060
Southampton,	1,100
Reserved Rates for Married Couples.
Suez,	$1,160
Malta,	1,260
Gibraltar,	1,348
Marseilles,	1,348
Southampton,	1,388

The charges for Children are in proportion to the above.
The above rates are exclusive of the amount payable to the Egyptian Transit Administration for conveyance of Passengers through Egypt, viz:—
For First-class Passengers, $32
Children above three and under ten years, half-fare.
By Order of the Managing Directors,
THOS. SUTHERLAND,
Superintendent.

ATTENTION!!
IT having come to my knowledge through a letter I have just received from Whampoa, that there are at present at that place certain Chinese dressed in European costume, who are said to be kidnapping their countrymen as coolies for the Macao barracoons, using my name as the party for whose account the traffic is being carried on, I deem it my duty to make it known, that I have no connection either direct or indirect with these men nor with such others that may use my name as the party therein interested, for, as it is quite notorious, I never have taken an interest in the coolie trade as being entirely opposed to my principle.
I will also add that the most effective means have been adopted for the apprehension and conviction of the culprits.
